

Heartache On TV

Asteria

And please just go away
Please, I can't take this now
I don't care what you want this will not affect me
I sit here watching your heartache on TV
And I don't care what you do
As long as you don't bug me
And please stop singing my thoughts back to me
And please just go away
Deciding what to do
Please just carry on
I know you wanted to
I'm always in this room
There's not enough to breathe
With all these padded walls
Just whisper it to me
And I hear all these sounds
In all this emptiness
Think I feel it around me
But its just loneliness
I just want to feel happy
Like back when we were both the same
And I just want to be in control
Of the things we both once knew
(Just go away)
