

I to Eye

Asteria

Now break down these walls
These walls aren't strong enough
To keep you inside
We'll never see I to Eye
She said, I'm sorry I lied
But I do what I have to
To keep you around
It'd be a shame to lose you now

I know
I can't let you see me
When your wondering this all
I can't
Let you down
Knowing that your wondering this all
(You're withering away)
So now that I can
Leave you in this place
Without a care in my mind
I never felt safe here anyway
So how are you now?
You know that I'm gone
I'll always be the one who got away

(The words that you say)

(You won't be happy)
