

Ain't Right

ASTN

Baby why don't you get at me
I know that what you heard ain't right
Those other girls they mad
Don't listen what they say
Just stop listening

Forget who you talking to lately
You was my first, you belong to me baby
I'm playing for keeps and this time I ain't playing
I'm going all in so girl imma say it
I miss you I miss you and girl I just hate it
I know that you feeling the same
People don't change
I'm guessing that's why you afraid
Just give me time to explain
Spark up a flame
Get to know each other's names again
Go tell your friends
What they been saying is wrong don't pretend
Like you believe anything they been saying
I wanna restart but tell me where can I begin

Baby why don't you get at me
I know that what you heard ain't right
Those other girls they mad
Don't listen what they say
Just stop listening

Gimme your heart I won't break it
Gimme your hand and I'll take it
Gimme your heart I won't break it
Gimme your hand and I'll take it

She don't wanna talk no more
She just wanna vibe wanna vibe for sure
Pick up my clothes and I'm closing the door
You got what you wanted and leveled the score
Wish I woulda known you'd be leaving next weekend
Then I caught you with another guy sneaking
Who knew you could of be so deceiving
You was seeing
Every guy that was 6 foot and breathing
I shoulda known you was creeping
Every time you heard that phone go off girl you was geeking
Keeping me distant not telling the truth
But truth is I'm dumb enough for a round two so

Baby why don't you get at me
I know that what you heard ain't right
Those other girls they mad
Don't listen what they say
Just stop listening

Gimme your heart I won't break it
Gimme your hand and I'll take it
Gimme your heart I won't break it
Gimme your hand and I'll take it
