

Flowers

ASTN

I've been running round all day, picking these flowers for you
I swear you don't appreciate all the things I'm doing for you
And I've been running round all day, picking these flowers for you, oh yeah
I swear you don't appreciate me, there really ain't that much t o say

'Cause, baby, I ain't got room for a broken heart
Had to throw it out, no use in broken parts
Had it working overtime until we broke apart
I was broken down, girl

So, I ain't got room for you
No more, no more
So, I ain't got room for you, yeah

I've been running round all day, I put in those hours for you
I know you don't appreciate all the things I'm losing for you (yeah)
There's no coming right back, I'm getting my mind back And, girl, if I hurt you, well you should go ice that 'Cause I don't say sorry no more
I know that I'll just be ignored And haven't we been here before? I know that we've done this be fore, yeah

I've been running round all day, picking these flowers for you
I swear you don't appreciate all the things I'm doing for you
And I've been running round all day, picking these flowers for
you, oh yeah
I swear you don't appreciate me, there really ain't that much t
o say

'Cause, baby, I ain't got room for a broken heart
Had to throw it out, no use in broken parts

So, I ain't got room for you

No more, no more
So, I ain't got room for you
