

Revenge

ASTN

Why is every time you leave the worse?
But every time you show up on my phone
I swear it hurts, I know that I wasn't what you needed
Come on, baby, give me what I deserve

You want revenge, won't let me in
You want revenge, won't let me in
Won't let me in
You want revenge, won't let me in
You want revenge, won't let me in
Won't, let me in

How is everything I say the worst?
I know it's not your fault
But, man, I swear my heart it burns
I know that I'm just not what you need
Hear your name place me to my knees
You want revenge, won't let me in
Tell me the last time we spoke
Or the last time we quit it

Girl, I wish things could be different
But I throw that away
I started to fade, I shouldn't changed
You want revenge, don't let me in
Tell me the last time we spoke
Or the last time we quit it
Girl, I wish things could be different
But I throw that away (Oh, let me in)
I started to fade (Let me in)
I'm sorry, I changed

You want revenge, won't let me in
You want revenge, won't let me in
Won't let me in
You want revenge, won't let me in
You want revenge, won't let me in
Won't, let me in

Changes are a weird thing to think about
Think about that when you reach now
Don't leave her side
Man, she needs you now
You're weak without her
You can't breathe without her
Can't see without her
You doubt her
Man, you're lucky you found her
She might be the one
My baby, she's gone, yes
