Baby I know, baby I know, baby I know
Baby I know

Baby I know
What he thinks
What he's thinking about
And I hope you know too
A couple drinks
Ain't what it seeming now

Why would you even try?
He ain't worth your time
And I know you're busy, Baby
Still you give him peace of mind
Don't you know what's on the line

So baby
If he call don't answer now
He call don't answer now
If he call don't answer
If He call don't answer now
That ain't the answer
That ain't the answer now
That ain't the answer
That ain't the answer now

Baby, just don't entertain it
Me versus him can't entertain it
Oh I'm laughing just thinking about it
Just see the smile on my face
I heard that music he made
Fuck all that music he made
About you I'm feeling away
That little career he after
He and I ain't the same
Hoping he made it past you
Cause he'll never see the day
He can take that shit straight to the bank

Why would you even try?
He ain't worth your time
And I know you're busy, Baby
Still you give him peace of mind
Don't you know what's on the line

So baby
If he call don't answer now
He call don't answer now
If he call don't answer
He call don't answer now
That ain't the answer
That ain't the answer now
That ain't the answer
That ain't the answer now
That ain't the answer
Baby, don't entertain it
