

Bleed

Astrid S

You still think of me when you're all alone, lying down in your bed

Mmm, mmm

And I still think of you

But I close my eyes and it makes me forget

Mmm, mmm

'Cause we had something but we tried to make it become nothing

Then you peel it off, I bleed

Let the wound be, or it won't be healing, it won't be healing

So please, can't you see the scar that is bleeding?

You have to heal it

I'm bleeding

I'm bleeding (hey)

"Knock, knock" on my door

I was doing fine until I saw your face

Mmm, mmm

'Cause I know that you know

I can't move on if you don't give me space

Mmm, mmm

'Cause we had something but we tried to make it become nothing

Then you peel it off, I bleed

Let the wound be, or it won't be healing, it won't be healing

So please, can't you see the scar that is leaving?

You have to leave it

I'm bleeding, I'm bleeding

I'm bleeding, I'm bleeding

Let me get over you, let me get over you

Let me get over you, bleed

I bleed

So please, can't you see the scar that is leaving?

You have to leave it

I'm bleeding, I'm bleeding

I'm bleeding, I'm bleeding

Let me get over you, let me get over you

Let me get over you, bleed

Let me get over you, let me get over you

Let me get over you, hey
