

Can't Forget

Astrid S

I woke up laying out in the grass
Say hello to the hangover sunrise
Tell me, how did it go by so fast?
I was wearing his hoodie from last night

I can't remember what we drank or his name
I can't remember when he left, how he came
Don't know if this feeling will last
But one thing I'm sure of is

That I can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him
I just can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him
I can't remember what we drank or his name
I can't remember when he left, how he came
But I can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him

Took a pill for the ache in my head
I was hoping I'll make it go away
I'm still drunk on the way that he felt
And I still got his face stuck in my brain

I can't remember what we drank or his name
I can't remember when he left, how he came
Don't know if this feeling will last
But one thing I'm sure of is

That I can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him
I just can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him
I can't remember what we drank or his name
I can't remember when he left, how he came
But I can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him

No, I don't remember a thing
But I can't forget him
No, I don't remember a thing
But I can't forget him
I woke up laying out in the grass
And I still got his face stuck in my brain
Now one thing I'm sure of is, I'm sure of is
I gotta see him again

'Cause I can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him
I just can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him
I can't remember what we drank or his name
I can't remember when he left, how he came
But I can't forget, I can't forget, I can't forget him
