

Good Choices

Astrid S

I really wanna make good choices
But I keep messing up over and over
And some days I swear
It's like trouble keeps calling my name, sane

Maybe I should stay out late
When I know I'm up at 8
Order things that I can't pay for
Oh, I wish I'd walk away more

Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
Wake up and try to be someone new-ooh, ooh-ooh
Couldn't even if I wanted to-ooh, ooh-ooh
It's part of who I am
Can always try again though, try again

I really wanna make good choices
But I keep messing up over and over
And some days I swear
It's like trouble keeps calling my name, sane, sane
Good choices
Avoid it
Good choices

Maybe I should call my ex
'Cause I'm starting to forget him
I guess I am just a type that
Needs to make the same mistake twice

Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
Wake up and try to be someone new-ooh, ooh-ooh
Couldn't even if I wanted to-ooh, ooh-ooh
It's part of who I am
Can always try again though, try again

I really wanna make good choices
But I keep messing up over and over
And some days I swear
It's like trouble keeps calling my name, sane, sane
Good choices
Avoid it
Good choices

Should pick myself up
Should love me non-stop
Should give me a shot
And be my own friend
Should cut myself slack
Should quit holding back
I owe myself that
Believe in myself
I really wanna make good choices

I really wanna make good choices

Good choices
Avoid it
Good choices, sane
Good choices
Avoid it
Good choices
