

Shattered

Astrid S

Have you ever felt broken?
Or have you ever got so far away
From what you were
And though my words unspoken
Deep inside my heart I saw a change
I'm done with ya
Didn't want me to be myself
Till I broke off this shell
Now it's shattered like your heart on the floor
I'm sorry I can't give any more
You acted so sincere
But you wanted me to fail
Now it's shattered, shattered, shattered
Now it's shattered, shattered, shattered
And I don't care
Picking up the pieces
I can see the cuts upon your hands
And it's all too much
You make it all dramatic
Not everything I do is about you
You won't grow up
Didn't want me to be myself
Till I broke off this shell
Now it's shattered like your heart on the floor
I'm sorry I can't give any more
Y acted so sincere
But you wanted me to fail
Now it's shattered, shattered, shattered
Now it's shattered, shattered, shattered
Even if we glued it back together
We'd always see the cracks forever
Even if you said you'd leave me never
We'd always see the cracks forever
It's better when it's shattered like your heart on the floor
I'm sorry I can't give any more
You acted so sincere
But you wanted me to fail
Shattered like your heart on the floor
I'm sorry I can't give any more
You acted so sincere
But you wanted me to fail
Now it's shattered, shattered, shattered
Shattered, shattered, shattered
And I don't care
