I can't put my time into
Things and confide in you
I know you'd like me to
But I can never do that
You be on my phone talking about who that bitch
Baby I don't move that quick
You crossed the line too many times
Too many times
I can't
I can't put my time into
Things and confide in you
I know you'd like me to
But I can never do that
You be on my phone talking about who that bitch
Baby I don't move that quick
You crossed the line too many times
Too many times
I can't

Yeah 'cuz
I pull up
You throw that
I gave you time
I need it all back
Cause we
Bro quit I'm playing
So I need you to bitch
Go stop complainin'
Cause I ain't your man
And I never will be
I've been drinkin' bottles
All of them empty
I've been fucking hoes
Cause all of them feel me
I've been poppin' pillies
Yeah all of them kill me

Yeah-ay
If you want yeah, you can go and do it
But I ain't fightin' for you, yeah shawty I ain't that stupid
You used to these parties, You used to these drinks
You used to these mollies and all of these rings
Honey, bottles and too many women
But I'm fine with that, they all my addictions
I'll live this life 'till it comes to an end
But I ain't got time to love and pretend

I can't put my time into
Things and confide in you
I know you'd like me to
Baby I don't move that quick
I can't

Things and confide in you
Baby I don't move that quick
I can't
