Okay Jamal
Yeah yeah yeah

Have you ever fucking tried with me?
Girl, leave your boyfriend, come vibe with me
And let's go (ay), let's go (ay), let's go
When I dream of you, it's hard to see
I can take you anywhere, baby ride with me
So let's go, let's go, let's go

Yeah, I can take you to the candy shop (ay)
Go low baby, don't you stop (ay)
I know they couldn't find the spot (ay)
But Astrus gonna make you rock, yeah
Yeah, I'll put you in some Prada, treat it like it's Nada
Be all in and turn into an enchilada
Okay that's explicit, tequila kisses
Twenty-one wishes for the legal bad bitches
Order more drinks, you can put it on my tab
And if you get drunk, I could order you a cab
I got some more girls so don't get mad
And I'ma drop you off 'cause bitch I ain't your dad, but, but I can love you 'cause your father don't
And I know I said I'll call but you know I won't
You could come over again if I want more
Come at two AM then leave at four, okay babe

Have you ever fucking tried with me?
Girl, leave your boyfriend, come vibe with me
And let's go, let's go, let's go
When I dream of you, it's hard to see
I can take you anywhere, baby ride with me
So let's go (ay), let's go (ay), let's go
