

Lovers Only Singalong

astrus*

Baby, I'm made this way
Okay, look, look, look

Okay, I'm a backseat lover, a boy
Caught us some baggy Corduroys
Heart falls off when it's on my sleeve
So I put it in a Polaroid
Left, right, backstrokes
Baby, get a pen, take a few notes
Kind of my drink, but who knows
Don't give me your heart, I lose those
But goddamn, he was so fine
You could go and waste my time
Pick you up in my new whip
Go to the sticks and watch the sky
Play this on the radio
And I'll shoutout my favorite hoe
They'll play this on the radio
And I'll shoutout my favorite hoe

Okay, so this gon' be your favorite song
I promise I won't wait too long
Lullaby me baby
This your lovers-only singalong
Your voice I just need to hear
So scream that shit right in my ear
Love me right before I go
And hit my face and let me know

She a smalltown lover girl
Everybody always tryna give her the world
But she don't really want diamonds, these pearls
When someone real's gonna put her first
And maybe, maybe I can play that part
We could go get a dog and sit in the park
Love game, baby, go ahead and press start
Let my card do [?]
Got her dad screaming out "Fuck you"
While she's screaming out "I love you"
Baby girl, you should come through
But only if you really want to
Got her dad screaming out "Fuck you"
While she's screaming out "I love you"
Baby girl, you should come through
But only if you really want to

Okay, so this gon' be your favorite song
I promise I won't wait too long
Lullaby me baby
This your lovers-only singalong
Your voice I just need to hear
So scream that shit right in my ear
Love me right before I go
And hit my face and let me know

So this gon' be your favorite song
I promise I won't wait too long

Lullaby me baby
This your lovers-only singalong
Your voice I just need to hear
So scream that shit right in my ear
Love me right before I go
And hit my face and let me know

So this gon' be your favorite song
