

WINDOW

I had to tell you no, I had to let you go
Tryna find myself while I'm looking out the window
I had to tell you no, I had to let you go
Tryna find myself while I'm looking out the window
Yuh, out the window, yuh, out the window
Tryna find myself while I'm looking out the window
I had to tell you no, I had to let you go
Tryna find myself while I'm looking out the window
Yuh, out the window, yuh, out the window
Tryna find myself while I'm looking out the window

Every city got a place
Tryna find something on someone that is worth for me to stay
'Cus I get tired of everywhere
I get tired of what I wear
Then I switch my style up but I still can't fit anywhere
I miss all of the times
When you used to be mine
But now we're playing tag
But now I'm chasing bag
Used to be watching snoopy
But now I'm buying Gucci
I used to stay in one lane
But now my life's in airplane

The studio's and people
I don't like, but this is my life
Yeah, this is my life, yuh
I wouldn't trade it, nah
Sometimes I hate it now
I wouldn't trade it, nah
Sometimes I hate it, nah

I had to tell you no
I had to let you go
Tryna find myself
While I'm looking out the window
I had to tell you no
I had to let you go
Tryna find myself
While I'm looking out the window, yuh
Out the window, yuh
Out the window
Tryna find myself while I'm looking out the window

I had to tell you no
I had to let you go
Tryna find myself while I'm looking out the window, yuh
Out the window, yuh
Out the window
Tryna find myself while I'm looking out the window
