

Heliotrope

At the Drive-In

beneath the residue of film beneath the chemicals
that the picture split
the ouija board had spelled its name
in tiki torches set aflame taking rations from the ballet box cursing like sweet tarts

increase the dosage
count back from 10

and it was written down touching earth in a capital faunt heat seeking gums bleeding fingers snapping
at the catacomb stabbings
taking rations from the ballet box

adhesive she said
don't stick to me

inseminating motives of lukewarm persistence let the theives in through the front door
let them take what they've been missing

it's as if someone raised the price of dying
to maximum vend again

turn slowly for maximum vend...
