

Atari Teenage Riot : Digital Decay

the elite of our time has a wet dream: they want to turn the internet into their personal global chess board where every user is a servant to their powers freedom, truth, self-realization this is what we want and we must resist all forces who are pushing against our liberation stagnation, deflation capitalism - the constant trigger for frustration the more closed off the network is to outside intrusion, the less able it is to engage with that which is outside itself your after-life is digitized your intellectual property is already digitized

Brooklyn, Berlin, Tokyo, Austin, L.A., London, Warsaw, Montreal , Limoges, Barcelona, Chicago, Baltimore, Taipei, Dublin, Amste rdam, Brussels
Glasgow, Milan, Vienna, Moscow, Perth, Detroit

this is what we need as a collective, as an individual the non virtual world should mirror and incorporate the possibi lities of the free internet let's abolish the existing grid

the more closed off the network is to outside intrusion,

your possessions are digitized your social network is digitized Digital - Decay
Digital - Decay

Let's abolish the existing grid as it only exists in our minds
