Myself

The Ataris

I live my life day by day, hating it in every way.

Sitting all alone, keeping to myself, far away from everyone el se.

Even though I feel alone inside, sometimes I find it hard to hi de.

It's hard to keep my feelings in, I just wanna express myself a gain. I'm gonna speak my mind.

You should speak your mind!

I wonder how I'll tell you how I feel, and how do I know if this feeling's really real?

I don't understand the reasons why instead of speaking your min d you don't even try... you don't even care.
