Mm-day, mm-day, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

Mm-day, mm-day, oh

The light in my deserted heart (Hala, hala)

Reflected in a broken mirror

The desire in my eyes is disappearing

Further down, down

The pouring rain falls and presses on my head (Presses)

I try my best to climb up somehow (use my strength)

I'm suffocating, I can't even count the sacrifices

I'm falling endlessly (I'm still falling down)

Heaven's door

Is getting farther and farther away

Mm-day, mm-day, oh

What do I have to be sick for?

Am I one out of countless people why?

Who am I to blame?

I can still hear it, keep your head down

Oh-oh

I'm out of breath here every day

Oh-oh

I can't escape it

Yeah, yeah
Broken lights, panic (Panic)
Tied up in chains
You could be my doll
Defeated in the day of desire
Pop, pop
Forced knock, back, defeat
Shake into the waves down, down
The wind's pressure wraps around (Hoo)
Hey, save me here, help me (Woah)
Hold my hand, hold me (Woah)
Water, water keeps drying up, I'm thirsty
My body won't even make a bad sound (Ayy)
Into the depths
I'm in danger of disappearing
Can you remember
Even if it is this scream of death

Heaven's door
Is getting farther and farther away
Mm-day, mm-day, oh

What do I have to be sick for?
Am I one out of countless people why?
Who am I to blame?
I can still hear it, keep your head down
Oh-oh
I'm out of breath here every day
Oh-oh
I can't escape it

The gesture of despair tempts me
As if I could run away
Run away, run away, far away
I can't take it anymore
Mayday, mayday, mayday
Fade out, fade out, fade out
Why are you doing this to me
I want to live (Hey)

What do I have to be sick for?
Am I one out of countless people why?
Who am I to blame?
I can still hear it, keep your head down
Oh-oh
I'm out of breath here every day
Oh-oh
I can't escape it

Oh-oh (Everyday)
Out of breath here every day (Out of breath, now)
Oh-oh (Hey)
Can't escape
