Release the chain binding you
All of your pain you've been suppressing
Let it all, all out, I'll save all of you more, more
The returning feeling
Spreading my frozen wings, I'll fly up
Now I show myself in the gray sky
A single light appears, a silver light of hope
My awaited salvation, the shelter at the end
At the moment of despair, oh, yeah

Those blue bruises
Come back and become a spark
So that nothing stains you
Burn it up far away, oh-oh

Follow me, silver light
Finally fly away
Piercing through the darkness into the light
Beyond that light
Shine on me, silver light
At last, rise up
Piercing through the darkness
Into the light, into that light

Through the rainstorm, through the darkness
Fly away into the daylight
Getting close to paradise
Into that light, beyond that light
Through the rainstorm, through the darkness
Fly away into the daylight
Getting close to paradise
Into that light, beyond that light

Yeah
A light shines in my black world
This is the last chance, maybe
There's no law saying die
The trigger at the edge of breath
Whether I want it or not
This is my life
In the time of regrets, I'm going
Here is the last man standing
A radiant light's shout
Countless voices
Spreading immeasurably
A vast expanse is
Breaking out within that small frame
Our ego emerges

Peace out to my past
Without hesitation, keep on

I'm willing to go blind
This light I've been waiting for all my life is coming up (Coming up)
If I can reach it by letting everything go
I've never been here before, reborn in a new life, we are

Follow me, silver light
Finally fly away
Piercing through the darkness into the light
Beyond that light
Shine on me, silver light
At last, rise up
Piercing through the darkness
Into the light, into that light

Through the rainstorm, through the darkness
Fly away into the daylight
Getting close to paradise
Into that light, beyond that light
Through the rainstorm, through the darkness
Fly away into the daylight
Getting close to paradise
Into that light, beyond that light

Fly, follow that light up there
My salvation found at the end of despair
Light up brighter, we go higher
Light up brighter
We go, heading towards the light
Flying into the sky

Follow me, silver light (Oh)
Finally fly away (Finally fly away)
Piercing through the darkness into the light
Beyond that light (Beyond that light)
Shine on me, silver light
At last, rise up
Piercing through the darkness
Into the light, into that light (Go to paradise)

Through the rainstorm, through the darkness (Oh, yeah)
Fly away into the daylight
Getting close to paradise
Into that light, beyond that light (Hey)
Through the rainstorm, through the darkness
Fly away into the daylight
Getting close to paradise
