Pull up in the Golden State
Up in a G6 fully loaded paper plane
Don't ever count no sheep ain't got no time to waste
Always runnin' on a hundred always wide awake

Gotta keep it undercover on the low
I don't ever tell nobody who don't gotta know
All these bricks stay movin' like a domino
If you ain't about the business then Adios

I like to party, when it's a party
That's payin' me to pull up, up, up, up
Know you callin' but I ain't sorry

From the Bay to the Universe
The World's mine
Young Gerald gets paid to make words rhyme
Acting innocent, no it's not your first time
We're far away if Libra is her sign

Oooof, danger, danger
Don't be a stranger
She said no one can save her
Her insides, I could rearrange her

WORK, flex, WORK, flex
Always in the lab, how I earn checks
$100, 000 for a verse, yes
Wouldn't lift a finger if it were less

Ba ra ba ra bam
Come in with a bang
Always drop that fire got that propane

24 K

It ain't no gold plate
Top, bottom, left, right, and back
On the whole chain

I don't got no boss, I'm already poppin'
I don't plot no plots, it's already written
I don't shop no shop, I get it custom fitted

Yeah, purr then I wake up in a mansion
Uh, make another rack and then I rack it in (Stack, stack)
My clock ticks on a different beat
Chasing that dough?
Wow, ride with me

That's payin' me to pull up, up, up, up
Know you callin' but I ain't sorry
