

Superman

Atlanta Rhythm Section

I wish I was that Superman
Stopping trains and making diamonds in my hands
Big reporter man, I'd write all the news today
And it would say "Up, up baby and away..."

Cause there's a fire in my head
And my feet they wanna dance
But I ain't got a chance
Am I gonna have to wait forever
Well it might as well be never
I don't have a chance, no
No I don't have a chance

Well, well, well, it's the underdog
And every door leads right back to the fog
But Goddamn baby, I don't wanna win 'em all
I just wanna win this one, that's all

Don't you know there's a fire in my head

And my feet they wanna dance
But I don't have a chance
Tell me, am I gonna have to wait forever
But it might as well be never
I don't have a chance, no
No I don't have a chance

Ain't got a chance
I don't have a chance
I don't have a chance

Don't you know there's a fire in my head
And my feet they wanna dance
Tell me, am I gonna have to wait forever
But it might as well be never
I don't have a chance, no
No I ain't got a chance

Ain't got a chance
I don't have a chance
Ain't got a chance
No I don't have a chance
I don't have a chance...
