

Tryin'

Atlantic Starr

I still wanna meet you every evenin'
I still wanna pull you much to close
I still wanna love you though this can't be
I still miss you but don't blame me

If I'm tryin', tryin'
Tryin' to forget your face
I keep tryin', tryin'
Findin' you in every place

I wanted blindly to love you
More than money, I wanted to give in
But you're committed to another
Sorry to say we can't win
Not as lovers but maybe friends
Much as it hurts me to say
This "other woman" just can't stay

And I'm tryin', tryin'
Tryin' to forget your face
I keep tryin', tryin'
Seein' you in every place, yeah

Uh-huh

Everybody knows you as a nice guy
Even I'm convinced
But not nice enough to keep me on the side
So be a prince, stop offering bribes

'Cause I'm tryin', tryin'
Tryin' to forget your face
I keep tryin', tryin'
Findin' you in every place

I wanted blindly to love you
More than money, I wanted to give in
But you're committed to another
Sorry to say we can't win

And I'm tryin', tryin'
Tryin' to forget your face
I keep tryin', tryin'
Seein' you in every place, huh!

Tryin'
Ah, you're such a bad boy

Tryin', you're no good for me
Tryin' to forget your face
I keep tryin', you're so bad for me
Seein' you in every place, oh...

Tryin', tryin', tryin'
Tryin' to forget your face
I keep tryin', uh-huh
Seein' you runnin' around every place...
