

CHEAT DAY

Maybe it's the question
Maybe it's the answer
I don't know the reason now
And maybe it's your eyelids
Maybe it's the moonlight
Something beautiful sticks out

And I'm in my bedroom watching through the window Stare at the sunlight wondering where the time is going
You're in the bathroom crying with your shirt undone
Now we're on the freeway speeding past a cop car
Stole your mom's van and took it for a test drive
And you're sat in the back seat looking at your bestfriend's hair
And I wanna be, more than a cheat day in your diet plan
You can be the lungs baby, I can be the diaphragm

Just breathe
Just breathe and you'll be fine
Just breathe
Just breathe
It happens all the time
