Dear everyone I've disappointed
I know it's been a while
I'm sorry that I'm so ugly
When I smile

And dear family I've avoided
'Cause I'm scared to be in groups
I swear that I don't hate you
And I hope you love me too

Dear friends who I've not seen
In at least three months
I'm just scared to leave my house
Feel free to say what's up

And dear lovers I've neglected
Most of you have sucked
So those who did can fuck right off
But otherwise good luck

And dear self, hey, cheer the fuck up
And dear self, hey, smile a bit
And dear self, you're beautiful
Forget what you see, your eyes are shit
And dear self, hey, cheer the fuck up
And dear self, hey, crack a joke
And dear self, you're fun to hang with
And dear self, I love you so
