

I've been resting with you next to me
Wondering when you'll finally get to see
All these things
That I've got planned
Sitting silent like a pictureframe
Open eyelids watching when you say
"Darling, I...
I'll be yours 'til I die"

And here... I feel safe
But still... I'm away from you
And I do not know where to go
How to wake up and feel like I'm home
And I will not sleep
'Til I somehow wind up in your sheets

And maybe it'll feel like I'm okay

Nothing ever makes me wish to be
Gone away from you, that's honestly
I will lay
In your arms forever
And everything's been falling into place
It's about time something went astray
Just to mix it up
So we've got something to fix

And here... I feel safe
But still... I'm away from you
And I do not know where to go
How to wake up and feel like I'm home
And I will not sleep
'Til I somehow wind up in your sheets

And maybe it'll feel like I'm okay
And maybe it'll feel like I'm okay
