

when i die

atlas

When I die fuck it I wanna go to hell
When I die fuck it I wanna go to hell
'Cause I'm a piece of shit it ain't hard to fucking tell
When I die fuck it I wanna go to

When I die fuck it I wanna go to hell
Homie been depressed but now I'm happy like Pharrell
I might pull up to the spot rolling deeper than Adele
With a bar so wavy think I'm speaking in a shell
Was a senior til the bell, gave me freedom from monotony
Now the only thing I do is kick it like a soccer team
Expert when it comes to ending friendships like monopoly
I bring the fucking philosophy, singer mixed with Socrates
See me coming better leg it like a centipede
Please don't step to the legend or his ministry
Tend to keep the peace but I'll release the fucking infamy
The second that you lay a hand on anybody in with me so

Please don't try me
I got drive and I'll turn it on the dime g
These dope rhyme schemes
So dirty finger writing on a crime spree

When I die fuck it I wanna go to hell
When I die fuck it I wanna go to hell
'Cause I'm a piece of shit it ain't hard to fucking tell
When I die fuck it I wanna go to

I'm bout to struck the lotto
Like I'm stuck in tomorrow
Dreams been borrowed
It's like I'm being closely followed
And my mind is hazy, been feeling all this sorrow
Killing like Wayne Gacy I wanna see tomorrow
Always around, hang in the bad slums of town
Smoking pounds just to feel happiness surround
Lackin' the ground
I wanna fuckin' astound
These ears that listen trapped in a prison
And I'm proud
Feel the essence of my adolescent years
It's so clear that my mind truly isn't here
It's far gone, sounds wrong
I'm happy with my tears
Sad songs, and close bonds
Ripped apart through the years
Content with my own shit, I'll be happy if I go
'Cause this weather been cold
My life isn't like most
Been trapped like a ghost
Boasting I act like the goat
But I'm a nobody though
With my nobody flow

AYYY

Hell
