

Are you happy with him
I really hope that you are
I had to lose you to find out
That we're better apart
Are you happy with him
I know he's good for you
I had to let go of us
So I could find out the truth

That you hate yourself right now
I can't change your mind
I know it hurts but just give it time

And things will get better (Better)
I know you have to leave
For things to get better (Better)
I know the reason isn't me

Are you happy with him
It really seems like you are
The way you smile in your pictures
Don't seem as fake as before
Are you happy with him
I hope that you're doing well
Nothing warms up this heart of mine
Like knowing your back to yourself

I know it hurts right now
But you can't change her mind
I know you love that girl
But just give it time

For things will get better (Better)
I know just what to do
For things to get better (Better)
I know the reason isn't you

The sun is shining
I'm finally living my dreams
The only thing that matches the feeling
Of you loving me
You got a family now and
You're making memories
Every mistake we made was the soil
And we were the seeds

To get better (Better)
I know you had to leave
For things to get better (Better)
A brand new chapter without me
For things to get better (Better)
Oh I know I have to leave
For things to get better (Better)
I closed the book on you and me
