

Casual

Atlus

I keep it casual I play it cool
You're staring in my eyes
But I stare right through
Cause I know you to damn well
To fall for that
To many others fall into that trap
You keep casual I know you do
I keep up all my wall when I'm around you
Cause we don't have to choose no
Don't need to change the mood no

Don't state the obvious
Cause I like what we have
No it's not love it's better then that
It's two dumb kids
Having fun in the back of the cab
Don't state the obvious
Don't read in it too much
And if you do we'll fall out of lust
I don't need a different point of view
Rather go nowhere with you

My ex kinda left me broke
I'm thinking yours did too
That's why your so damn cold
That's why I connect with you
Don't need the pressure or the title or the stress
Just need you in my bed and out that dress
Don't tell world no
Don't tell the fam
You don't post pics of us
For likes on the gram
We both scars that make us so timid
So we down a couple drinks
Just to forget
Don't overthink it
You can say what you want
Girl I know you don't mean it
Get lost in these feelings
Cause who knows down
The road if we even need them

Don't state the obvious
Cause I like what we have
No it's not love it's better then that
It's two two kids
Having fun in the back of the cab
Don't state the obvious
