

Enough Without You

Atlus

I don't want to go another day
Without your sunlight
For my darkest days and it's so true
How you turn my page
Always make every gray sky blue
Used to say I would never change
Damned for life on this solo train
Now the world spins a different way
Ever since you came around

So tired of trying to find any kind of a chance
Without your heart in my hand
Cause I'm lying when I said I'm not always
Dying to dance back into your bed
And I'm all sorts of caught up
Heartsick and love drunk
All in with nothing to lose
Cause the thought of alone
Just don't seem to work cause
I'm not enough without you
Enough without you

Now forever isn't long enough
Don't think it ever will be close to what
I want to spend with you
Calling dibs on you
Even after the after life
Feels so good to say
That I finally changed
No more tickets punched
On this solo train
And my whole world stopped
In a perfect place ever since
You came around

So tired of trying to find any kind of a chance
Without your heart in my hand
Cause I'm lying when I said I'm not always
Dying to dance back into your bed
And I'm all sorts of caught up
Heartsick and love drunk
All in with nothing to lose
Cause the thought of alone
Just don't seem to work cause
I'm not enough without you
Enough without you

So tired of trying to find any kind of a chance
Without your heart in my hand

So tired of trying to find any kind of a chance
Without your heart in my hand
Cause I'm lying when I said I'm not always
Dying to dance back into your bed
And I'm all sorts of caught up
Heartsick and love drunk
All in with nothing to lose

Cause the thought of alone
Just don't seem to work cause
I'm not enough without you
Enough without you
