

Yeah, ayy
Nato
Whoo!

One of these days, man, I might go crazy
My alter ego might suit up and it might go save me
I don't mind the overtime but I'm working it daily (Ayy)
And I'm a fan of the grind but can't let that overtake me (Ayy)
And, yeah, I'm proud of everything I did, of course (Of course)
If you want those bangers then you know that I'm the source (Source)
And all those days of poverty, I think I've run the course
Man, I was hunting for the hunnids, now I do it for the sport (What?)

And I've been on a hell of a run
But don't see a finish line 'cause I'll never be done
Fans think that I'm a hero so I better be one (For real)
Put that S on my chest and then the cape on my back and then protect everyon e
But, look (Look)

If I go crazy, then will y'all still call me Superman?
If I'm alive and well, then I'ma do the best that I can
I'm giving it all I got and me being human is my Kryptonite (My)
My Kryptonite, yeah

I never wanted to sleep 'cause I was always in go-mode
Kept the camera with me 'cause I knew that I would go pro
They ain't know that I was cookin' up, it was dope though
Now your boy a hero, got the S here as a logo
Really paid my dues, I never got it for cheap (No, no)
It's funny I can't catch a break and call that comic relief (No, no)
I know they judging how I look but what I got underneath
Will come out when I'm in the booth, I been hiding the beast

And I've been on a hell of a run
But don't see a finish line 'cause I'll never be done
Fans think that I'm a hero so I better be one (For real)
Put that S on my chest and then the cape on my back and then protect everyon e
But, look (Look)

If I go crazy, then will y'all still call me Superman?
If I'm alive and well, then I'ma do the best that I can
I'm giving it all I got and me being human is my Kryptonite (My)
My Kryptonite (Yeah), yeah

It's kind of funny, all them years I just wanted recognition
Now your boy is finally popping, now I'm all a sudden missing
I was tripping, I was thinking that I wouldn't be here
Shot-glasses to the face 'cause I'm seeing things clear
I keep my standards up high, young as they stress
People want to know the secrets so I tell them 'Say less'
Who you thought I was was just a shell of myself
I had your back for a minute, now I'm helping myself
Goddamn (Goddamn)
This whole life has been a storyline (Uhh)
But my movie isn't over 'cause there's more to mine (Uhh)

These type of lyrics will be dug up when they ancient
If y'all call me Superman, then there ain't no replacement, but

If I go crazy, then will y'all still call me Superman? (Man)
If I'm alive and well, then I'ma do the best that I can
I'm giving it all I got and me being human is my Kryptonite
My Kryptonite, I know
