

Raining Outside

Atlus

If your lips were a bottle I'd be drowning
Gotta quit
There's no other way around it
Like a drunk to a drink
Like a moth to a flame
We were fucked girl
The second that we found it

Can't do it faded
Can't do it sober
I try to leave than I don't
Now we're starting over
Can't do it sad
Cause girl I know you
You seeing tears only brings us closer

I hope it's raining outside
So you don't see me cry
When you pull in my drive
And I tell you goodbye
You'll believe it when I lie
Say it's over this time
You'll just end up in my bed if you
See the truth see my blue
Eyes turn red like they wanna do
When you pull in my drive
I hope it's raining outside

If I'm gonna make you think that there's really no love
Better be pourin' harder than the liquor in my cup
Ain't to proud to say, when it comes to you
I feel every shot of heart break baby here's the proof
Can't do it sad
Cause I know you
I need it cloudy with a chance of closure

I hope it's raining outside
So you don't see me cry
When you pull in my drive
And I tell you goodbye
You'll believe it when I lie
Say it's over this time
You'll just end up in my bed if you
See the truth see my blue
Eyes turn red like they wanna do
When you pull in my drive
I hope it's raining outside
