

ROSES

Atlus

I don't usually smoke but I hit it when you rolled it
It's like anytime they see us out together they know that
There they go
Yeah, they know
We were so hot the devil was getting so pissed
I should've known when I had you I ain't need nobody else
People coming up to me, but I ain't need nobody's help
And anytime they ask how I'm doing
I try keeping it cool
But I can't just hold it in, I let it out

Beauty and the beast
I get sick to my stomach staring at this rose it's
The what ifs
'Cause I had your heart and let go
And picked off every petal and now
You're gone and I have no one else to blame
Girl I know I chose this
You deserve someone who's better
Someone who puts you first
Someone who brings you roses

I still hear the stories
And see the pictures you're tagged in
Even thought I can't like your post
I still read the caption
And I guess some things never change
You just get more gorgeous by the day
I just want to know that deep down you really love me
I don't care if anyone in the world knows it but me
You don't need to say it out loud
All I know is I could use you 'bout now
I wish you could see these offers and labels that are calling
I know when I tell you you're happy for me and all that
But I need you to know
That you're here with me always
And I'm never alone

Beauty and the beast
I get sick to my stomach staring at this rose it's
The what ifs
'Cause I had your heart and let go
And picked off every petal and now
You're gone and I have no one else to blame
Girl I know I chose this
You deserve someone who's better
Someone who puts you first
Someone who brings you roses

I'm so glad I got to love you both even if it was just a minute
'Cause I couldn't imagine a world without both of you in it
But it's all my fault that you isn't
I'll admit it
I hope that as she grows up she still watches on her iPad
I would do it all to give that little girl more than I had
But I didn't
I'll admit it

Beauty and the beast
I get sick to my stomach staring at this rose it's
The what ifs
'Cause I had your heart and let go
And picked off every petal and now
You're gone and I have no one else to blame
Girl I know I chose this
You deserve someone who's better
Someone who puts you first
Someone who brings you roses
