

Complications

Atmosphere

Spoken: Yo this is dedicated, to this girl that I dated Complicated maze, Complicated maze

At first sight, only a stranger to my eyes, couldn't keep them off, I'm sure your friend recognized, I didn't care, I had to stare, stood there at attention
Not many words mentioned still I felt the thought connection, wanted sex the n
Got to know you wanted more, Things got complex when You had a man that wasn't sure
My thoughts were pure, Is it gonna be him? Or is gonna be me?
Cause that's the way I have to have it
Grasp the idea, Ms scribble head Talia
Wanted you to feature but your man is screwing up the procedure
What is it that you say? I'm on your mind all day
But still say you're content, how the situation lay
Why you play? Why do you stay? There's something better Know you felt it when you received my first poetic letter
Why you fronting? Tell me something
Is it that you want your cake and stuff it down your face too?
Did I have to chase you?
Why oh why do you cry?
Said of afraid of losing me I think that you're confusing me a lot
No wait a minute stop, bring that back I missed a page
Was it that time of the month or were you going through a phase?

Complicated maze. This phrase fits you perfect
Come back in later days. Talk to me when you're certain You're always changing up. Never stay the same person

Miss Merry weather, the partial, the martial artist of fake imitation love p roducts
Now facing you is irritation
Know you used to have me placing you on pedestals like a goddess
Personality changes it seemed to be to me you were the oddest
Soon to depart us like red seas by Moses
Our friendship's diseased, unfeasible, hopeless
No reasonable answers to my question of focus, Caused my tension
Nothing made sense when you replied with a tied tongue
Said you feared abusiveness, I never swung
Why all of these excuses miss? What have I done?
Figured I had the right kind of lady, yeah maybe it was fun, for you
But not for me, I found it quite unamusing
You were using me as a bridge just to pass what was left behind
Play times for dangerous minds, but why'd it have to be mine?
Why'd it have to be mine?

Now I'm not really trying to come off abrasive but why you messing with my mans head?
I mean I'm spending time trying to keep his mind on rhymes and beats and you're a distraction. I mean you got my man just shook I mean honestly I guess what I'm trying to say is...

Virgin torn from sleep, the newborn (*Slug speaking* 'Why are you doing this? See you're too old to be playing g ames')

And it was easy to get too deep, the water was lukewarm

Virgin torn from sleep, the newborn

(*Slug speaking* 'you wanna come back?')

And it was easy to get too deep, the water was lukewarm

Do you know what today is?

It's the third anniversary, you came back to flirt with me

For certain, you must mistake me for a fool

See I know how you are, I see those tricks in you

Tried to make amends, there's something new

Had problems with your friend, so it's me you always run to Come to, and smell the coffee, no drink the pot with extra caffeine

Cause next to acting you win awards for cloudy vision

Tired of fishing for the what, why and when

Will this repetition end, step away and give me oxygen

Not interested in talking, say nothing keep walking go bout your away

See the colors of these areas have started turning gray

See you later goodnight, got no more candles to light

Yo its time to move along cause baby something isn't right

Still I'm glad I met you, its too bad you screwed it up

The only thing I regret is that I didn't get to (fuck)
