Aye, are you okay what's that word even mean
Check your friends to make sure that they feel heard and seen
Cause it can change like the weather
And the weather seem like it's been under a lot of pressure
Alright good to talk to you till next time
And that's as profound as it gets some times
Trying to disable my defense mechanism
To protect this time we've been blessed to be given
How do you explain the feeling that you feel when you're connected
When I hear you talk it's like I'm listening to favorite records
I'm fully invested in the story you're telling me it's gloriously impressive
Emoji hearts to all of y'all at my party
I'm the OG that was parked on the wall
Thanks for your hand in helping me climb up here
You know who you are and you know that I love you
Let's give it up for your friends
Front to back, side to side, make noise for them
Try not to neglect your health
Get a professional listener help you talk to yourself
You might talk with god, you might talk to the dead
You might talk to your plants and your pets
I talk to my radio
I hope that everybody know the kind of people that I know
They got me turning up the audio

Even if the sky was clear
You need someone here when you got something to hear
No right one
Even if it's you in the mirror
You need someone here when you got something to hear
No right one
Even if I'm swimming in tears
You got someone here if you got something to hear
No right one
Even if I've disappeared
I'm here for you if you've got something to hear

If I know you bet I've given you uninvited advice
Mostly freestyle I didn't think twice
This might sound like I'm probably in denial
But if you love me you'd have told me I should shut my fat smile
Every once in a while I'll access a file
That's tagged with fresh paint that says forget
Drenched in sweat and gasoline breath
Trying to find the best synonym for regret
Nah, I'm joking but all of my laughs
Are based in the broken hearted nugget of facts
The circle gets a little bit smaller every passing cycle
Then turns around like where'd the time go
Figure out what we need to get out of our mouth
Then we can throw each other under the couch
Or we can take a drive or we can take a walk

Or call me on the phone so we can talk
