

Seismic Waves

Atmosphere

Armageddon started
I guess it wasn't that hard to miss
It didn't trip the alarm
On ya hybrid
Carbon footprint
The darts are rigged
And I'm a big fan of carbs
In the artist prints

There's a marginal risk
That ya cards won't hit
It's like tryna borrow
A barbecue rib from a starving kid
Be thankful if ya stars are lit
Or ya might get caught
Between the Charmin and shit
The armor fits to stay outta harms grip
But karma's a bitch
So when your heartbeat quits
Consider all the death you've invested with
The shoes, the booze, the phone that you texting with Disrespecting gets second amendmented
But the species still seem to be trending
From the friend zone all the way to the Kremlin
The devil give a fuck about a flag or an emblem

Things ain't been the same since Treyvon, shit
Things ain't been the same since Reagan, wait
Ain't a single thing change from the days
When the gods went crazy
And broke the languages

We tryna make these payments
Ain't got the privileged to exhibit the patience
Gone next week so tonight we lye
With no lives to save
Seismic waves

I should jump back and kiss myself
But I've been working on
Learning to resist myself
I used to think criticism
Was the definition
Fish swimmin' up a river
Full of pessimism
I wanna catch one bare-handed
Clean it, cook it
And feed it to Lazarus

All around the planets
The same as Minneapolis
Everybody lookin'
For a little love and happiness
I don't romanticize the rain
And those drugs only hide the pain
Turn up the temperature
High as a plane with non-sequiturs

To tie up your train.

And you keep Christopher Walken
With the shit that you're talking
You can't take it with
If it don't fit in your coffin
As a kid I didn't give it much thought then
Just wanted a mouth full of nipple
And a Zippo in my zipper pocket

I remember when the whole world
Stank like an ashtray, yeah
The good ol' days
I wanna laugh when somebody say
'The Good Ol' Days'
But they was good
'Cause we did learn to look both ways
Across a road way
Like everything'll be okay
Before we go the fuck away
Like a snowflake
Gone next week
But tonight
I'm tryna reach those seismic
Climb those
Seismic waves

I don't need another reason
'Cause I'm leaving with you, with you
I don't need another reason
'Cause I'm sleepin' with you
I don't need another reason
'Cause I'm leaving with you
I don't need another reason
'Cause I'm sleepin' with you
I don't need another reason
'Cause I'm leaving with you, with you
I don't need another reason
