

Velour

Atmosphere

She say she wanna keep it pure
Maybe we can be velour
I said it might be premature
But I think that we can be velour

She said how can you be sure
That we can be velour
I said I'll see you after tour
Then we can be velour

She said she wasn't convinced
I said but the love's so intense
She said we need to come to our senses
I said I wanna come to your scent

She said I paint impossible pictures
I say that that's a lot to consider
She said she feel like she got tossed in a river
I said I'm tryin' to hop in there witcha

She said I'm not the figure of her father
If she tried a little harder maybe hit the ball farther
I say that don't discourage me at all
I'm determined to misinterpret graffiti on the wall

She says that you the one that makes it complicated
I said I'm tryin' to instigate a conversation
She say you don't communicate without complaining
I said it's not a complaint, it's just an observation

She say she tryin' to hold the space with a pocket full of patience
But actually the problem is we got too much to say
I said had the combination written on a piece a paper
And I accidentally locked it in the safe

Wait, don't be so insecure
We could be velour
