

Happy Birthday General

Atom and His Package

You were a little baby, very long ago.
You're still kind of like that baby,
but just a little old.
Mommy loves you, daddy loves you,
Atom loves you too.
This song was written by Andrew and a Jew.
Guess who?
Happy Birthday.
Mufasa on the mountain with this little boy.
You might be a girl, or you might be a boy.
Together we fight the world, side by side,
with heavy metal and honor and a bathtub full of pride.
This song is pathetic.
