

Out to Everyone

Atom and His Package

Hey man, Lets chart a new horizon, before summer becomes fall.
I don't want to think of money or the scary shape the world is in. No jock infested basketball.

And you wonder why we laugh laugh laugh at your lives, and you wonder why we bike ride.

There are those who say 'you don't know any thing'

You know the places to eat, the matinees, the parking spaces, the record stores the common place, the level 700 seat.

And you wonder why we laugh laugh laugh at your lives, and you
wonder why we bike ride.

Big girl small world

this goes out to everyone

who doesn't understand what we can do

big girl small world

this goes out to everyone

who doesn't understand what we can do

Doesn't that sound nice?

relatively You know the places to eat, the matinees, the parkin g spaces,

the record stores the common place, the level 700 seat.

And you wonder why we laugh laugh laugh at your lives, and you
wonder why we bike ride.

Big girl small world

this goes out to everyone

who doesn't understand what we can do
