

Anger Left Behind

Atreyu

Do you know? Do you care?
Are we just passing through moments wasted in time?
Can we be more to this than leave ashes behind?
Lightning strikes, the fires rage

Tear out the pages from the story of this life
The cloud of anger left behind
And tell the future will we be buried deep or flying high
Or just the anger left behind

The light is fading now as stars fill the sky
Raise!
Throw your body to the wolves, lay screaming as you die
Tear flesh from bone and lose your mind

Tear out the pages from the story of this life
The cloud of anger left behind
And tell the future will we be buried deep or flying high

Tear out the pages from the story of this life
The cloud of anger left behind
And tell the future will we be buried deep or flying high
Or just the anger left behind
Or just the anger left behind
