

Oblivion

Atreyu

Not too long until the end of days
No hope to wash our sins away
Distracted by our misery
Happy in our destruction
Bound by insecurity
Embrace the hate never set free
Smiles aren't fucking fooling me
When it all comes crashing down

Are we lost in oblivion
Like a moth to the flame
Feel like we're falling faster
Fall in to the great disaster
Is there anybody out there
That's not going insane?
Feel like we're falling faster
Fall in to the great disaster

Sing and praise the damned today
Celebrate their infamy
Condemn our fellow man and say
There's no innocence in destruction
Cut ties with humanity
Savages are hunting me
Sucking my fucking soul away
Till it all comes crashing down

Are we lost in oblivion
Like a moth to the flame
Feel like we're falling faster
Fall in to the great disaster
Is there anybody out there
That's not going insane?
Feel like we're falling faster
Fall in to the great disaster

Are we lost in oblivion
Like a moth to the flame
Feel like we're falling faster
Fall in to the great disaster
Is there anybody out there
That's not going insane?
Feel like we're falling faster
Fall in to the great disaster
