

Stay

Atreyu

I thought I saw your reflection
Makes me wish that you were here
A soft glance in my direction
Could erase all my fears

Take me with you
I don't think I can go
Another day without your sweet embrace
Take me with you
All my colors seem to fade
And turn to grey

I wish you could've stayed
I wish you could've stayed

And it hurts
To know
That you weren't happy here
And the sting
Of life
Was just too much to bear

Take me with you
I don't think I can go
Another day without your sweet embrace
Take me with you
All my colors seem to fade
And turn to grey

I wish you could've stayed
I wish you could've stayed

If I could go
To the moment it mattered most
I would give you a hand to hold
And bring you back to me

Take me with you
I don't think I can go
Another day without your sweet embrace
Take me with you
All my colors seem to fade
And turn to grey

I wish you could've stayed
I wish you could've stayed
I wish you could've stayed
I wish you could've stayed
I wish you could've stayed
