

Straight To Hell

Atreyu

Suspend our reason, in favour of action
Don't think about it, it doesn't matter
When you say it's over, instead reaction
And no depth or reason, let's talk of passion

Take another stand in line
Self destruct for no good reason
Say your prayers and crack a smile
Welcome to the killing season
On our way, on our way, on our way
We're on our way, on our way, on our way
Straight to hell

(Hey, Hey)
I just want something different
(Hey, Hey)
Humanity is crooked
(Hey, Hey)
The beast is fucking hungry
(Hey, Hey)
And now the devil's rising
And he's smiling at me, and he's calling out your name
And he's smiling at me, and he's calling out your name

Take another stand in line
Self destruct for no good reason
Say your prayers and crack a smile
Welcome to the killing season
On our way, on our way, on our way
We're on our way, on our way, on our way
Straight to hell

The congregation, souls indicate
Extermination, set your hopes aflame
Embrace damnation, truth is betray
Our desperation, [?]
We're losing everything

Take another stand in line
Self destruct for no good reason
Say your prayers and crack a smile
Welcome to the killing season
On our way, on our way, on our way
We're on our way, on our way, on our way
Straight to hell

On our way, on our way, on our way
Straight to hell
We're on our way, on our way, on our way
Straight to hell
