

Dark Waves

Attack Attack!

Oh, I know you met me here so conveniently
Do you remember me?
Cause I remember you like a fever dream
You taste so sweet, like a cheap glass of wine
But I bet you hear that all the time
I get away but you keep pulling me, pulling me in

Close your eyes and stay with me
It feels so wrong, yet so right to me
We build back up just to fall apart
Cause you're damned to be another hole in my heart

Fuck that

When you're near I feel the cyclone start to spin
I get away but you keep pulling me, pulling me in

Close your eyes and stay with me
It feels so wrong, yet so right to me
We build back up just to fall apart
Cause you're damned to be another hole in my heart

Do you remember me?
Cause I remember you
Like a fever dream

Close your eyes and stay with me
It feels so wrong, yet so right to me
We build back up just to fall apart
Cause you're damned to be another hole in my heart

Close your eyes and stay with me
It feels so wrong, yet so right to me
We build back up just to fall apart
Cause you're damned to be another hole in my heart

You're just a hole in my heart
