```
Is this my last breath?
I can't breathe,
I'm choking on my own condescending words.
Answer me
Will you ever answer me?
Aren't you gonna answer me?
When I am crying out your name and I'm lost in shame.
Lead me on my way,
And give me words to say.
(Words to say)
And I can't see
That I've lost my dreams,
Carry me, cause my heart is weak
Is this my last breath?
I can't sleep
This world inside my head is run by my anxious thoughts
Give me peace
Will you bring me off my knees?
Aren't you gonna answer me?
When I am crying out your name and I'm lost in shame.
Lead me on my way,
And give me words to say.
(Words to say)
And I can't see
That I've lost my dreams,
Carry me, cause my heart is weak
Is this my last breath?
I've been trying aimlessly, over & over
To fill this void inside of me.
My mind's in a cage
And I'm on my knees.
(On my knees)
I can feel the shift go inside my head,
Am I going crazy?
And I can't see, that I've lost my dreams,
(This is is my last breath)
Carry me, cause my heart is weak
(This is is my last breath)
I can't see, that I've lost my dreams, yeah
And carry me
(You gonna answer me?)
Cause my heart is weak
Answer me!
