

Lights out

Attack Attack!

What do you remember?
Everything we said keeps going around in circles
And as I'm lying here I am searching for the answers
And everything we said keeps going around in circles
Yeah in circles
So what went wrong
And where did we lose direction?
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
Girl, girl oh oh
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
What do you remember?
Was it the comfort of my smile
Or seeing the hatred in my eyes?
I hope you regret this
Now that the secret that you're keeping is no secret
Was it worth it?
So what went wrong
And where did we lose direction?
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
Girl, girl oh oh
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
Girl, girl oh
Hear screams when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out
It's over she said (over)
There's no argument now, I found out where you're coming from
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
(Hear screams when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out)
Girl, girl, there's something you should know
(Hear screams when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out)
Hear screams when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out
It's over she said (over)
There's no argument now, cause you know I know everything
Hear scream when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out
It's over she said (over)
There's no argument now I have found out where you're coming from
