

Live, Love, & Die

Attack Attack!

Standing on the ashes
Of all we've ever known
A world made out of plastic
And we're all skin and bones

Don't need to know where we're headed
Can't see hell when you're burning in heaven
Standing on the ashes
Of all we've ever known

A thousand horizons, the future is clear
You give me a purpose, erasing my fear
I drink all the poison so you can survive
I'm here for the moment, to live, love, and die

Was two, now one
Together on the run
Can't be undone
We write our names in blood

A thousand horizons, the future is clear
You give me a purpose, erasing my fear
I drink all the poison so you can survive
I'm here for the moment, to live, love, and die

Don't need to know where we're headed
Can't see hell when you're burning in heaven
Standing on the ashes
Of all we've ever known

A thousand horizons, the future is clear
You give me a purpose, erasing my fear
I drink all the poison so you can survive
I'm here for the moment, to live, love, and die
