

On The Porch

Attack Attack!

Back when one could be
Why not? We'll pull this trigger now
Will be here for a broken.
It'll ruin our dream, a broken dream.
Now will be the time I said.

You ruined the lie, to ruined the dream.
You ruined the time, to ruined the dream.
I will lie for you, I bled for you.

The time when, the time when
the time when I cant go on when you live.

The time when, the time when
the time when I cant go on when you live
this time.

It will make you burn alive, I tell the truth.
It burns you on the skin, I let her live.
(Now will be the time I said.)

You live your life like its just a trend
but that's when you didn't know
(We hit the place of dread and pain)
now I see this your life is gone and I ask myself what I created.

I'll die if there's someone that's screaming.
I know if they died,
Once more I heard them die.
