Out of Time

Attack Attack!

Looking through my reflection in the glass
A broken record playing reruns of my past
Oh, I know I can't let go
Of every memory that left me broken
Oh, I hope that this will come to pass

Where do I go from here?
(Running in the dark, looking for a light)
Too many wasted years
(Trying to find a way I can win this fight 'cause)
I feel like I'm running out of time
Counting all the wrongs that I never made right
Where do I go, where do I go from here?

Looking up ahead I'm still behind
Searching for the answer that I know I'll never find
Oh, I know I gotta let go
But I was never one to be that easy
Oh, I know I'm broken by design

Where do I go from here?
(Running in the dark, looking for a light)
Too many wasted years
(Trying to find a way I can win this fight 'cause)
I feel like I'm running out of time
Counting all the wrongs that I never made right
Where do I go, where do I go from here?
Where do I go from here?

Where do I go from here?
Too many wasted years
I feel like I'm running out of time
Counting all the wrongs that I never made right
Where do I go, where do I go from here?

Where do I go?
I feel like I'm running out of time
Counting all the wrongs that I never made right
Where do I go, where do I go from here?
Where do I go from here?
