

Sacrifice

Attack Attack!

Hey, baby. Come a little closer

Drowning in the chaos, let the devil play God
Picking off your flower pedals one by one
Giving you a trade off, bullet or an A-bomb
Tying up your feet and saying, "Run, child, run"

Run, run into the dark where
I've been waiting for you all this
Time, ready for the war that saves your life

And if you stand alone
I can be your do-or-die-er
And if your blood runs cold
I can fill your eyes with fire
Face the ending side to side
Rage against the dying light
But if it's one of us
Let me be your sacrifice

Reaching through the static, fully automatic
They want it they can have it one by one
I can be the madness, now who's the one laughing?
There's no going backwards, run, child, run

Run, run into the dark where
I've been waiting for you all this
Time, ready for the war that saves your life

If you stand alone
I can be your do-or-die-er
And if your blood runs cold
I can fill your eyes with fire
Face the ending side to side
Rage against the dying light
But if it's one of us
Let me be your sacrifice

Run, run into the dark where
I've been waiting for you all this
Time, ready for the war that saves your life

And if you stand alone
I can be your do-or-die-er
And if your blood runs cold
I can fill your eyes with fire
Face the ending side to side
Rage against the dying light
But if it's one of us
Let me be your sacrifice
