

We All Meet Up In The End

Attack Attack!

Funny now you think it's all in the past
And wonder how you live with no consequence
But when that day comes and you must repent
I'll be waiting with the dogs of revenge

Hello, find your way inside
Step into the light
Nothing will go your way

You let me suffocate
Choke on your love
Now I'm standing at the gate
Knowing you'll come
You might think you'll never see me again
But don't you worry
We all meet up in the end

Just can't wait to watch you smile when you're scared
Daydream about it, baby, nothing compares

And don't you try to fight
Your god won't abide
To anything you might say

You let me suffocate
Choke on your love
Now I'm standing at the gate
Knowing you'll come
You might think you'll never see me again
But don't you worry
We all meet up in the end

We all meet up in the end

Hello, find your way inside
Step into the light
Nothing will go your way

You let me suffocate
Choke on your love
Now I'm standing at the gate
Knowing you'll come
You might think you'll never see me again
But don't you worry
We all meet up in the end

We all meet up in the end
